LOCAL BRIEFS.

Vote early.

Watch the polls.

Be cool, calm and deliberate to-day.

White men will not vote for James Harris.Judge Merrimon will arrive in this city this morning.Let us devote this one day in four years to our country.Wm. E. Doty is no longer an Agent for the Daily and Weekly News.Challenge every vote you have reason to doubt. Frauds are as yet numerous.W. A. B. Branch, Esq., of Washington county, is on a visit to his relatives in this city.Nearly all our citizens that have been spending the summer at the Springs, have returned home to vote.We shall endeavor to have full report of the vote from towns and counties on telegraph lines in to-morrow's issue.Work for your county ticket. Our friends in the county only ask us to do our duty in the county and all will be well.See that the sick and lame get to the polls to-day. Every voter is important, especially in the county election.In accordance with laws made and provided, the various saloons in this city will be closed till 6 o'clock to-morrow.Choose ye to-day between radical misrule and dishonesty and an honest, fair and open administration of our State Government.Let all your actions to-day be guided by a becoming spirit of moderation, resist violence and be prompt in the discharge of your duty.Let us be prepared to-night when we retire from our labors to rest, to do so with a clear conscience that our duty has been performed.Judge Merrimon arrived in the city last evening and addressed a large assemblage at Metropolitan Hall. Messrs.
Pace and Dupre followed. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.THE RICHMOND ENQUIRER MIS-FORMED.—The Richmond Enquirer

states private advices represent the Democratic mass meetings in this State as indifferent affairs except the rally at Weldon, "which was close enough to Virginia to receive inspiration from the more excitable temperament of our people."

The Enquirer's private advices are totally unreliable and devoid of truth.
There has never been witnessed in the history of North Carolina a series of more enthusiastic gatherings than those of the present campaign. Besides the large meetings here, at High Point, Greensboro, Charlotte and Concord, where the numbers are represented as having been larger than in the great meetings of 1840, the little town of Marion, with less than three hundred inhabitants, boasted of two thousand persons in attendance on the 26th July. At Charlotte, all accounts agree that there were four and five thousand to hear Schurz and Walker. The idea of "Virginia's inspiration" at Weldon is unique and decidedly peculiar. It is one of the richest jokes of the season.

THE FIRE AT CHARLOTTE.—The cause, origin and result of the fire at Charlotte has been published through our telegraphic columns.

We were present on the ground and observed the heroic efforts of the Charlotte firemen to arrest the course of the fire. The Hornet Steam Company were early on the ground and rendered great service in the extinguishment of the flames, but we were surprised to see them building the fire in the engine furnace after reaching the scene. Had they been prepared with a sufficient quantity of steam, as they should have been, nearly the entire building could have been saved.

The hook and ladder company were considerably retarded in their work by the trucking of hook chains.

We localize this matter that our city fire department may profit by the experience of others, that they may see and know the importance of being always in readiness, and should they have defective chains, ladders, hooks, &c., that when the fire is raging it is too late to prepare.

Work.—Young men, are you at your post? Do you feel the great importance of this day's contest. Are you aware that your efforts to-day can consign to defeat Jim Harris, the negro, and elevate to the highest position in Wake county, our gallant and noble standard bearer, Gen. Cox.

Our country friends say to us we send you Battle, Pace, Alfred, Jones, Dunn, and the county ticket into Raleigh seven hundred ahead, and will you permit that majority to be overcome in your city?

Young men, work to-day, and our county ticket is elected. Let us not only reduce the majority below seven hundred, but less than three hundred.
IT CAN BE DONE if the proper effort is made. See that none but legal votes are cast. Be not afraid to challenge.
Know that your own friends are voted.
Look out for the sick, the lame, the halt and the blind.

In a word, go to work, and work the entire day.

To-day.—Working men of the city of Raleigh, this is a day in the events of which you are peculiarly interested.

To-day, by proper effort you can turn the tide of Radicalism and negro rule in Wake county.
We learn that some of the working men of the city have expressed their willingness to vote for one or two names on the Radical ticket, &c. &c.

Find these men—look them up and appeal to them in the name of our country interest, tell them of the odium attached to the act of voting a radical ticket, &c. &c.
Working men, this is peculiarly your day for work. Will you do it.
CARL SCHURZ.—This distinguished statesman and soldier arrived in our State on Saturday last at Greensboro, where he spoke to an audience of 2,500 in the evening. At Charlotte on Monday his audience was stated to be 5,000, though we thought there were more.
At Concord, on Tuesday, he was greeted by the largest audience ever seen at that place, and yesterday at Company Shops the same thing may be said.
Gen. Schurz expressed his anxiety to visit our city, and owing to an engagement in St. Louis, he was compelled to return to that city from Company Shops.

NOTICE TO parties heretofore published, or challenged, whose names appear on the Western Ward, Middle Ward and Eastern Ward books of the city, and the books of Raleigh township. The time for trying said challenges, has been changed from 12 o'clock, M. to-day, to 8 o'clock, A. M., to-day, at the places heretofore designated. All parties concerned, are hereby notified to be promptly present.

D. A. WICKER,
Registrar Eastern Ward.
W. WHITAKER,
Registrar Middle Ward.
R. S. PETTIFORD,
Registrar Raleigh Township.

BY THEIR WORKS SHALL THEY BE KNOWN.—Billy Smith says there are twenty-five young men in the city of Raleigh, democrats, that will vote for him.

While we do not believe it, yet if there are any in the city, let us know them. Make this a part of your work to-day, young men. To find them out, let them be known. He that is not for us is against us, and every vote for Billy Smith to-day, will be given by an enemy (if not an open one) to our party.
Let us know them.

SENATORS Schurz and Tipton, Judge Merrimon, Geo. Walker and Hon.
Josiah Turner spoke to an immense audience at Company Shops yesterday.
We have not space for details.

[For the Raleigh Daily News.

A CARD.

The impression prevails in the minds of some persons that in the discussion between Maj. J. T. Littlejohn and myself at Dime store, that I used language unbecomingly and improper in legitimate debate. Whatever I might have said of a personally offensive nature was uttered in the heat of discussion. I cincerely regret that I should have been betrayed into hasty expressions of that character and hereby take the best method I know of for atoning for the error by offering all the necessary apologies that is incumbent on me to make under the circumstances.

HANSON T. HUGHES.

Oxford, N. C., July 31, 1872.

DULL.—Owing to the nearness of the most important event ever known in the State of North Carolina, and the complete absorption of the hearts and minds of the people in the great cause, business of all kinds was at a perfect standstill on yesterday. A feverish anxiety in regard to the event pervades the entire community and nothing else is thought of, nothing else talked of, consequently we have nothing else to write about.

DIED.—Albert Rust, a native of Birmingham, England, but recently settled on a farm near this city, died on Saturday last, at his father's residence, of Typhoid fever. Mr. Rust was 19 years of age, a young man of fine promise, having borne a bright and exemplary character, much beloved and esteemed by his associates, who deeply sympathize and join in the grief of his afflicted parents.

OUR CANDIDATES AT METROPOLITAN HALL.—We regret that we were unable to get in yesterday's paper, a report of the speaking at Metropolitan Hall, by our County candidates Tuesday night. Notwithstanding the Rads powerful at the Court House, yet the audience was very large and enthusiastic, and the efforts of our candidates on the occasion will doubtless have a telling effect upon the vote to-day.

POLLING PLACES.—Eastern Ward polling place, School House, Baptist Grove; Western, new Public School House, on Hargett street; Middle Ward and outside the corporate limits, at the Court House—the former, in the Court Room;
the latter, at the north window of the Commissioner's Office.

Don't You Do It.—We have heard that several members of our craft, resident in the city, intend voting for Gen.
Gorman, because he is himself a printer.
Let the printers and working-men remember that it was Gen. Jno. C. Gorman that did all he could to have the wages of the craft reduced in this city.

OYDE DUPRE.—We learn that this young gentleman created himself with distinguished credit at Goldsboro, on Tuesday. He made an eloquent speech.

Eighth District—R. B. Vance, of Buncombe.

TO-DAY.

Before this reaches the eyes of many of our readers, the great contest will have been fought and decided.

We have labored with all our energies to inform the people of the issues before them.

We have done what we could to instill a spirit of work and activity among the masses, and to awaken them to a sense of their wrongs and grievances.

We have endeavored to point out the dangers that threaten them if another lease of power be given to the Radical party.

We have illustrated the reign of Radicalism in this State by a startling array of facts and figures, showing its extravagance, putrid corruption, and open, flagrant, unrelenting despotism.

We have shown how North Carolina has been plundered, oppressed, despoiled, and trampled down.

We have shown how bonds of the State have been stolen by the million, and credit lost, and her good name sullied with dishonor.

We have appealed to the people with all our earnestness and zeal to come to the rescue of their country and vote down Radicalism and ruin.

We have information from every section of North Carolina that a deep and profound interest has been aroused by our candidates, and canvassers, and we expect the most gratifying results from their efforts. We can only say to our friends who may read this issue of the News before the struggle is over to day, to give all their thoughts and energies to the cause, and whether defeated or successful they will have the consciousness of having performed faithfully their duty to themselves, to their State and to the whole country.

His address to the colored men.

We published yesterday, in our telegraphic columns, that Hon. Charles Sumner, the Radical Senator from Massachusetts, had written an address to the colored men of the South, advising them to vote for Greeley for President.

We publish to-day a full synopsis of Mr. Sumner's letter. It comes too late to have much effect on the North Carolina election which takes place to-day, but we are of opinion it will have weight in dividing the colored vote in North Carolina in November.

The intelligent colored men of the South know who Charles Sumner is. To him more than any other individual have they been accustomed fondly and affectionately to look as their firm, unwavering friend and their most fearless and uncompromising champion.

In the Convention of colored men from all parts of the United States, which met at New Orleans a few months since, a resolution of thanks was voted to Sumner for his defense of the rights of the colored race, and for his great efforts for their education and elevation, politically, socially, and morally.

The influence of Sumner's letter on the intelligent portion of the negro population will be very decided, and we shall expect to hear in a few days of the formation of colored Greeley and Brown clubs all over the Southern States.

If Sumner had not waited too late, he might have produced a split in this colored vote which is to be cast in this State to-day. If, as Senator Wilson said in his Wilmington speech, the result in North Carolina will virtually decide the Presidential election, Sumner, as the friend of Greeley, and the advocate of his claims to the Presidency, should have written his letter two or three weeks ago. As it is, it will not have any perceptible influence in our State election. The colored vote will be given solidly for Caldwell, with such rare exceptions as hardly to be worth considering.

The address will no doubt be published in pamphlet form and sent all over the country as a campaign document. What effect it will have can only be conjectured at this time; but we incline to the opinion that it will be a strong card in the hands of the Greeleyites, and will open the eyes of many of the deluded colored men of the South, who are now blindly following the lead of reckless and unscrupulous Radical office-holders and office-seekers.

A VOTE FOR CALDWELL IS A VOTE FOR THE ENDORSEMENT OF ALL THE FRAUDS, CORRUPTIONS AND USURPATIONS OF THE RADICAL PARTY.

BEHOLD THE GOVERNOR.

We learn from a reliable source that during the discussion at Morganton on Saturday, Gov. Caldwell behaved in a manner unworthy of his position as the Governor of a great State, and very distasteful to his friends. For instance, the Governor told a grinning negro who was resting upon the speaker's stand, to get down, and a boy in the crowd applauded. His Excellency immediately cried out, "Come up and kiss him; it won't be the first one you ever kissed," we will not conclude the sentence.

Again, during the discussion a question was asked him, by a highly respectable citizen of Burke, Kemp Halliburton, whose blindness ought to have entitled him to reasonable courtesy.

The Governor replied roughly, and after the discussion was over, Mr. H. was led up near his Excellency, and politely and quietly asked him why he called him (Halliburton) a fool. Caldwell replied to this blind man, aged fifty-three and quite feeble, "Because you are a ——— fool!"

We suppose that the coldness of his reception in his own home, made the Governor even more petulant than his was.

VOTE EARLY!

Let every Democrat be at the polls to-day at an early hour.

Cast your vote first, and then go to work for the whole ticket.

Vote early and work late! Our opponents are desperate. They are resorting to every means to defeat us. They are greatly demoralized. They would not be resorting to such extraordinary efforts if they did not believe there was danger for them ahead.

They keep up a game of brag and boasting, but they are only whistling to keep their courage up. They feel that they deserve their defeat, and guilty culprits as they are, they are alarmed at the great awakening of the people in this contest.

It is important that every Democratic voter be on the ground in time to prevent fraud and cheating to-morrow.

The challengers especially should be present as soon as the polls are opened.

We must have a fair election.

We have too much at stake to be cheated out of our victory.

It will be a shame to have the popular voice stifled by fraud and political trickery.

STATE MATTERS.

Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

Cape Fear river is very low.

All quiet in Robeson county.

A severe storm visited Wilmington on Sunday night.

The Republicans of New Hanover county will press the claims of Jas. K. Cantor for the State Senate.

Two vessels have arrived in Wilmington with iron for the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta rail road.

A new steamship will soon be launched in Baltimore for the Baltimore and Wilmington trade.

The father of Sheriff Schenck, of New Hanover, died on Sunday morning at Fiskill, on the Hudson, New York.

JOHN H. HARRIS, of Caswell county, was seriously wounded at Hillsboro, on Monday, while attempting to jump from the train.

The Galveston Standard says: On last Tuesday morning the stage horses ran away with the stage a short distance this side of Henderson, and threw the stage against a tree, killing a passenger almost instantly. The unfortunate man was a stranger, and it is thought he lived in North Carolina when at home. We have not yet learned his name.

The Wilmington Star says: "We learn that after the speaking at Lilesville, on Saturday afternoon last, in which Conservatives and Republicans participated, a number of colored men, together with a few whites, got a file and drum and marched to Wadesboro. There they got up a riotous demonstration, rocking the houses of two gentlemen by the name of Threadgill and Mr. Thomas May. Those gentlemen came out to remonstrate with them and were greeted with insulting epithets and threats. Finally the white men gathered in considerable numbers and they were driven off. During the melee which ensued, one of the rioters was badly wounded with a rock. The riotous gang was headed by one Manass McNaught, who has for some time past been employed on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad and was one of the most trusted hands. A great many of the rioters were more or less intoxicated.

From the North Carolina correspondence of the New York Herald we copy the following: "In the Fifth District (Hon. Thomas Settle, the Republican candidate for Congress, and who was chairman of the Philadelphia Convention the other day, on the stump, indignantly denied the charge that money was being freely used by his party. An hour later he was tapper in a confidential manner on the shoulder by an individual, who said: 'Judge, I know about a dozen voters near here who will go for the other side, but they can be got.' 'How can they be got?' asked Settle. 'Well, it will take money; you know the kind of people they are here.' 'How much will it take?' said Settle. 'I don't know, but not much,' was the answer. 'Here,' said Settle, taking a roll of greenbacks from his pocket, 'here is sixty dollars. Is that enough?' 'Yes, that is plenty.' 'If you want more you can have it,' said Settle. 'This will do, this will get them,' said the individual, and away he went. Not a minute later Settle saw this individual on the speaker's stand displaying the greenbacks to the gaze of the crowd, and relating with no small degree of delight the circumstances under which he had obtained them, and adding, jocosely, that the Republicans were not using any money in the campaign, 'oh, no.' He invited all his Conservative friends to a grogery, when Judge Settle's money was freely expended in whiskey for his opponents.

SCHURZ AT CONCORD.
Immense Meeting—Speeches by Senator Schurz, Gov. Walker, Gen. Barringer, Col. Shober, &c.—Four thousand People in Attendance.
Great Enthusiasm—Cabarrus and Stanley All Right.
(Special Correspondence Daily News.)

CONCORD, N. C., July 30.
If I could give you the full details of to-day, I should take up columns of your paper. According to appointment, Senator Schurz, Gov. Walker, Hon. J. M. Barringer, F. E. Shober, H. H. Hester, Col. Lewis Hanes, and other well known citizens from a distance came to Concord to day to attend our great Mass Meeting. And how shall I begin?
Precisely at 10 1/2 A. M., the procession was in order, reaching beyond sight up and down the town so far as those who were advantageously seated could see—the eminent Senator of Missouri noting the fact that those who had fought against him for four years—rebels, Union-men, Conservatives and colored men, were following, in solemn and gay disposition to the point where they were to hear honest, true, able and earnest talks in favor of the great principles of liberty and honesty. The stand was handsomely decorated by the fair sex of Cabarrus, who, under the sentiment of the "sweet" novelist, knew so well that "no liberty could decay, no State fall, if the noisy patriots of man was half so pure as the silent loyalty of woman's love." God bless them and their influence!
Such an assembly of the honest and pure men of the country was never seen assembled in this town before. Meeklenburg, Rowan and Stanley adding their quota, to whom the people of Cabarrus gave a warm and enthusiastic welcome.

SENATOR SCHURZ.
being handsomely and appropriately introduced to the vast multitude of the German element and otherwise mixed assembly, spoke for an hour and a half, charming his audience attentively to the great issues that were dividing our countrymen—appealing to them "to clasp hands across the bloody chasm"—to give the "principles of human liberty and equal rights to all." Oh! that we had space for his full speech—a powerful statesmanlike—able and fervent effort for our country and the sacred rights that are to preserve our Republic in form of government.

GOV. WALKER.
then being introduced by P. B. Means, said he would not fulfill his duty if he did not extend the support of his noble old State to North Carolina, in the hour of her trial. Wipe out the Radical party, and "Good Lord deliver us from all such." He told us of the happy result in Virginia three years ago; denounced the Enforcement act; assured us what noble and beneficial result the Liberal movement proposed to give us.

This Administration has stolen more than all others, according to Mr. Wilson, and from the same authority all thieves ought to be "turned out," and "this is a bad year for thieves" (Wilson). He said the South wanted peace above all other things, and she had done her duty to bring it about, and God grant, as we had every assurance, that the great Liberal movement would accomplish it, for Grant surely would not, and had not.

He closed with a noble appeal to North Carolina to come out and vote for Merrimon and peace—and this Union and North Carolina will easily walk Mr. Greeley into the Presidential chair.

HON. F. E. SHOBER.
being introduced, entertained the attentive audience over an hour, discussing state politics, National, showing how we had been plundered and robbed—to what an infamous condition we had been brought by Radical power; and "honest true North Carolinians come out and vote and we are saved from oppression, tyranny, and the most corrupt government the world has ever seen."

HON. D. M. BARRINGER.
being introduced—said he had the best of opportunities of knowing how the State stood—he predicted a glorious victory not only for the General Assembly, but for the State ticket throughout. He then, as well as the other distinguished speakers had done, made an honest and faithful talk to the colored men and told them that they should not be enslaved politically—governed by impulsive and self-interested men—but exercise the rights of freemen, for as Senator Schurz said, Mr. Greeley had always contended for their freedom, and as the Senator had said, it was their duty, as they have all civil rights, to exercise them according to the dictates of their own convictions—not that we needed that element to elect the ticket, for we were surely going to elect it without the colored vote, but he wanted them to know that they were literally free. He then, as was the case at Mr. Pleasanton, on Monday 29th, when he addressed a large audience, and the most attentive we have ever seen, made some remarks to his old friends and companions, and when we remark that—we mean that his influence is more appreciated by them, with a co-extensive faith, than any man in the State, for he is their boyhood companion, and he confides in them as they do in him.

His efforts have been able, influential, faithful and highly appreciated.

All the speeches were pointed, able, and listened to with the utmost attention; four thousand people from all sections of the surrounding country being present and highly interested—the assembly being largely sprinkled with ladies.

Col. Barnhardt deserves great credit for his services during the day. Also James M. Means and his sub-Masters deserve the many thanks of the people for their preservation of good order. Cabarrus and Stanley are all right, and under our immense enthusiasm will give us a glorious result for Merrimon and Constitutional liberty.

SUMNER'S LETTER.
HE ADVISES THE COLORED PEOPLE TO VOTE FOR GREELEY.

Synopsis of Mr. Sumner's Letter to the colored people.

By Telegraph, July 31.

He addresses his correspondents as gentlemen and fellow citizens. He delayed answering that he might reflect and fully inform himself. He has listened to much from both sides but his best judgment is now in harmony with his early conclusions. He is touched by the appeal his correspondents make. He has been the friend of their race and is glad they consider him the special advocate of their rights; they do him ample justice when they believe that his counsel at this critical juncture would be free from personal or partisan prejudice.

Mr. Sumner contrasts the two candidates. Greeley was born in poverty and educated himself in a printing office. Grant was fortunate in early patronage, became a cadet at West Point and was educated at the public expense; one started with nothing but industry and character, the other with a military commission. One was trained as a civilian, the other as a soldier. Horace Greeley stood forth as a reformer and an abolitionist.

The President enlisted as a pro-slavery Democrat and at the election of James Buchanan, fortified by his vote, all the pretensions of slavery, even the Dred Scott decision. Greeley from early life was earnest and constant against slavery, full of sympathy with the colored race and always foremost in the great battle for their rights. President Grant, except as a soldier, supported by the terrible accident of war, never did anything against slavery nor has he at any time shown any sympathy with the colored race. Mr. Greeley earnestly desired that colored citizens should vote, and ably championed impartial suffrage, but President Grant was on the other side. Beyond these contrasts, which are marked, it cannot be forgotten that Horace Greeley is a person of large heart and large understanding, trained to support human rights. Mr. Greeley's industry, general knowledge, amiable nature, and above all, honesty, which no suspicion has touched, are maintained. Few of these things appear in President Grant.

His great success in war cannot change his record toward the colored people, while there are unextinguished showing that in the prosecution of his plans he cares nothing for the colored race.

Mr. Sumner, prefacing that the story is painful but must be told, gives the history of San Domingo and Hayti, where he outraged eight hundred thousand blacks who were engaged in the great experiment of self-government.

Here follows the history of the attempt to annexation. He alludes to the disrespect with which Grant treated Frederick Douglass, who, by his invitation, was one of the San Domingo Commissioners. Grant has little capacity or industry in protecting the colored people, and as such peace at the South. After violating the Constitution and international law to insult the black republic, and setting an example of unbridled anarchy, he was not in a condition to rebuke the law breakers.

Mr. Sumner then considers the present position of the two candidates; each was nominated by a Republican Convention. He lands the material composing the Cincinnati Convention, comparing the character of the supporters of the two candidates. He says the country knows too well the military ring, the Senatorial ring, the Custom House ring, through which the President acts. Such supporters are a very poor recommendation. He says it is idle to say that Horace Greeley and the Republicans which nominated him at Cincinnati are any less Republican because the Democrats unite with them in the support of cherished principles, and the candidate who represents them in the support of cherished principles which are the glory of his character.

On the contrary, they have in his election, not only the promises of the platform, but also the splendid example for a full generation, during which he has never wavered in the assertion of their rights. To suppose that Horace Greeley, when placed where he can do them the most good, will depart from the rule of his honest life, is an insult to reason. It is more the less idle to suppose that the Democrats supporting Horace Greeley expect or desire that he should depart from these principles which are the glory of his character.

They have accepted the Cincinnati platform with its two-fold promises, and intend in good faith to maintain it. Gentlemen, in this answering your two inquiries, I have shown why you, as colored fellow citizens, and also all who would uphold your rights and save the colored race from indignity, should refuse to sanction the re-election of the President, and put your trust in Horace Greeley. I ought to add that with him will be associated as Vice-President B. Gratz Brown, whom I have known for years as a most determined abolitionist. The two together will carry into the National Government an unwavering devotion to your rights not to be disturbed by partisan dictation or sectional prejudice.

Besides all this, which may left to guide you in determining between the two candidates, it is my duty to remind you that as citizens of the United States and a part of the country, your welfare is indissolubly associated with that of the whole country. Where all are prosperous you will be gainers. Therefore while justly careful of your own rights, you cannot be indifferent to the blessings of good government.

It is for you to consider whether the time has not come for something better than the sword, and whether a character like Horace Greeley does not give stronger assurance of good government than can be found in the insulter of the colored race, already famous for the rings about him, and his plain inaptitude for civil life.

Speaking now for myself, I have to say that my vote will be given for Horace Greeley; but in giving it I do not go to the Democratic party, nor am I any the less a Republican. On the contrary, I am as much of a Republican that I cannot support a candidate whose conduct in civil life shows an incapacity to appropriate Republican principles and whose administration is marked by acts of delinquency, especially toward the colored race by the side of which the allegations, on the impeachment of Andrew Johnson were tyrannical and trivial.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE

IN THE COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shoccoe Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing town of Edgewood, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Overseer's house, three cabins, corn-crib and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (1/4) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, &c., one-fifth in second growth places. The soil is sandy, lean and chocolate-colored, undulating—well watered, and yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. The best tract of land in this section, and will sell on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near it, is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

A. S. PERRY, Louisville, June 12th, 1872. June 15-11.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.
